

KAMIL PINAS

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

Performance-focused developer specializing in building complex, data-heavy enterprise applications using React and Typescript. Proven track record of optimizing rendering for large datasets (50k+ records) and delivering scalable, cross-platform solutions (Web & Electron) for the industrial sector. Passionate about creating reusable component architectures that reduce development time and ensure UI consistency.

EXPERIENCE

Frontend Developer

Software Interactive (Outsourced) 2021 – Present

Zebra (Aurora Focus) – Workforce & Device Management

- Engineered a robust B2B enterprise platform using React and TypeScript, handling complex workforce data management.
- Developed custom D3.js, interactive data visualization modules to render complex computer vision metrics, allowing users to analyze image data directly in the UI.
- Implemented client-side PDF generation functionality, enabling instant export of detailed analytical reports and charts for stakeholders.
- Optimized AG Grid implementations to handle large-scale datasets, reducing rendering time and ensuring smooth interaction for power users.

TSR – Industrial Vision & AI Platform

- Architected a cross-platform desktop application (Electron) that interfaces with Node.js and C++ backends to control industrial hardware.
- Leveraged PixiJS (WebGL) to implement high-frequency data visualization for industrial scanning, bypassing DOM performance bottlenecks to ensure smooth operation under heavy load.
- Designed a lightweight, scalable state management system using React Context API and custom hooks to handle complex device configurations.
- Integrated real-time AI/OCR data streams, creating a seamless feedback loop between industrial smart cameras and the user interface.
